

CIVIL WAR ENLISTMENT

Rust's general store on the southeast corner of Franklin & German Mill Roads, was the place where men could enlist in the 10th Michigan Cavalry, Company B.

Captain Roderick Bryan was the enlisting officer. Three local boys – Warren Barber, Joseph Bowden and Joseph Van Every – pledged their allegiance to the Union Army here.

